Student's performance in lectures will be evaluated as follows:

1. Students should answer two questions associated with the topics of lectures. Questions will be made public two weeks in advance for lectures #2 to #5 at the end of the previous lecture (and on the course Moodle). The submission deadline for answers to questions is the day of the respective lecture (e.g., October 21 will be the deadline term for answering questions to lecture #2, published in October 7). Answers to L2 should be e-mailed to the course leader e-mail potucek@fsv.cuni.cz, questions to L3-5 should be answered via Moodle. Answers to each question (up to 2,200 characters, including spaces and excluding references) will be evaluated by 0 to 2 points. If question answers are longer than that, their content will not be evaluated, and they will receive 0 points. In addition to references in-text or in-footnotes, students need to attach a reference list after each question answer.

Guidelines for Lecture Question Answers

Students' answers to each of both questions cannot be longer than 2200 characters, including spaces and excluding references. If question answers are longer than that, their content will not be evaluated, and they will receive 0 points. In addition to references in-text or in-footnotes, students need to attach a reference list after each question answer.

The evaluation of students' answers to PP Course lecture questions

Points	The nature of answer
2	The question was fully understood, the theoretical framework and empirical evidence were rightly applied. Reference to at least two scientific sources in addition to one of the course's textbooks (at least two scientific sources should be used in each answer). Value added: inventions, unusual but relevant perspective, appropriate case which fits to illustrate the given problematics.
1	The answer corresponds with the question, but it is more or less descriptive and doesn't provide satisfactory explanation of a given topic. Scarce reference to literature.
0	The answer doesn't correspond with the question as it was not understood. Failed reasoning – with logical failure or uncritical application of ideological cliché. The „common sense“ answer without attempt to scientific analysis and reference to literature. Answer delivered after deadline.

2. Students can apply to present the Open Space Presentation, based on the application via course Moodle. Selection of presentations will be based on the quality of the proposal plus principle first come – first serve. If approved, students will deliver their powerpoint presentations and hand-outs in lectures #3 to #5, and can get up to 4 additional points.

Guidelines for Preparing and Presenting Open Space Presentations

1. Choose an interesting issue suitable for public policy analysis.
2. Collect sufficient information to be able to explain the structure and relevant context of a corresponding public policy problem.
3. Decide about the appropriate theory/ies suitable for policy analysis.

4. Apply selected theory/ies to your case and critically assess its/their strengths and weaknesses.
5. Compile a concise power point presentation (up to 10 slides, including resources) and mail it to the course leader. You will be informed about the result in 7 days.
6. Present it in the classroom in about 15 minutes, followed by discussion.

Note: Consider to have a look at chapters B2, B3 and B4 of Public Policy textbook for inspiration how to apply public policy theories.

3. Students shall be admitted to the written examination for this course (in English, Czech or Slovak) if they have been sufficiently graded for their performance in lectures.

Conditions for passing: Table 1: Points can be earned in the following ways:

Item	Min	Max
Student's performance in lectures	8	20
Written examination	18	35

Table 2: Final grading shall be based on the following key (provided the student earns at least the minimum number of points for each particular item – consult Table 1):

Final point score	Credit
40 or more	A	Pass (započteno)
39 or less	F	Fail (nezapočteno)
